15 PARTNERS AT LNBYB ELECTED TO PRESTIGIOUS LIST FOR 2019 OF OUTSTANDING LAWYERS IN SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

(LOS ANGELES) — In an affirmation of its keen skills in the field of bankruptcy law, 15 partners at Levene, Neale, Bender Yoo & Brill, L.L.P. have been elected to the 2019 edition of the prestigious listing of "Super Lawyers" in Southern California.

Since the list's introduction in 2003, LNBYB's presence has grown exponentially, and includes all of the firm's name partners - David L. Neale and Ron Bender, co- managing partners and co-founders; Timothy J. Yoo, and Martin J. Brill. The other "Super Lawyers" honorees are:

Partners Todd M. Arnold, David B. Golubchik, Eve H. Karasik, senior partner Gary E. Klausner, Juliet Y. Oh, Carmela T. Pagay, Kurt Ramlo, Daniel H. Reiss, Edward M. Wolkowitz and Beth Ann R. Young. Also named was David W. Levene, a co-founder and now of-counsel.

"Being richly represented on the 'Super Lawyers' list as we are, is another strong indicator that our work in all aspects of bankruptcy and reorganization is recognized positively and endorsed by other professionals familiar with our field of work," said Bender and Neale.

The annual polling is conducted by a division of Thomson Reuters, a global communications, information and data corporation. The selections are the result of a rigorous process conducted by Super Lawyer staff, resulting in third party validation of the firm's professional accomplishments.

"It is gratifying that our peers throughout the Southern California region support our standards, which goes a long way in the steady growth and success of our firm," said Messrs. Bender and Neale. "Our placement on the "Super Lawyers" list has been a key factor in our growth and success since our founding in 1995."
